THIRTY THIRD SUNDAY OF YEAR 17 NOV 2019

We may not like it, we may deny it, we may resist it but the reality is things are changing. Our world is changing, our church is changing, our lives are changing. There are days when life is forever changed and nothing is like it used to be, days when the temples of our life and our world fall. Security, peace, and diplomacy have given way to fear, violence, and terrorism. Temples are falling everywhere!

Jesus calls us to be faithful and endure in whatever circumstances we find ourselves. He promises that God is always with us. Stone by stone God will rebuild, stone by stone God will restore the original beauty of our life and world. Stone by stone a new temple arises from the rubble. Stone by stone we become the temple of God. We no longer have temples or need them. We are the temple.

God rebuilds what we cannot, recreating life out of loss and ruin, a God who rejoices and delights in his people.

*O God, the Creator and Redeemer
of all the faithful,
grant to the souls of our departed brothers and sisters the remission
of all their sins,
that through our prayers and Masses
they may obtain that pardon which they have always desired;
who lives and reigns
for ever and ever.*
